Time: 20 minutes

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

The Life of Queen Elizabeth II

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

Writing

Dear Joe,

Thank you for your recent email. It was nice <sup>to</sup> hear from you again. I'm sorry I haven't written for so long. I was busy preparing for my literature test. Now I'm going to answer all your questions.

To begin with, I like the main characters because they are kind, extraordinary, peaceful. Also I like other characters. However, their playing is boring and this is a total disaster. By the way, the show has many seasons with beautiful characters. If I were you, I would watch all seasons of this show. It is a best way of free time. However it is harmful for eyes.

I have to go. My mother call me. Please write back soon.

Best wishes,
N

Writing

Dear Joe

Thank you for your recent email. It was nice to hear from you again. I'm sorry I haven't written for so long. I was busy preparing for my test. Now I'm going to answer all your questions.

To begin with, I would like main characters of the series because they are cool, exciting and <sup>very</sup> kind. Also, main characters have a lot of wonderful ~~and thrilling~~ adventures, a mazing and thrilling adventures. By the way, there are ~~have~~ eight nice and interesting seasons, which I watched <sup>in 2011</sup> so far. Besides, <sup>think this show is one of the best in the world.</sup> this eight seasons ~~one~~ of the best in the series and I would recommend ~~them~~ them.

Sorry, I have to go, my mom is calling me.

Write me back soon.

Best wishes,
N

The Life of Queen Elizabeth II

1. Later reign Marriage Later Princess Elizabeth

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. Early life of the heir

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. Princess Elizabeth Marriage

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. Coronation

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. ~~Early life of the heir~~ Marriage Later reign

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

Dear Joe

Thank you for your recently <sup>e-mail</sup> ~~later~~. I'm sorry, I can't answer your letter earlier because I was busy with my homework. Now I will answer all your questions.

First of all, ~~the~~ TV series have three interesting seasons. I very like this show, ~~and the main characters, because the main characters.~~ I like ~~the main characters too~~. I also like the main characters because they are very clever, strong and responsible. In my opinion, this show has <sup>a</sup> very original plot. But as I see it, ~~this show it should be more intriguing it should have~~ more intriguing episodes. There are too many series which are boring in the show. But the series are also cool and I watch them every evening.

~~Sorry~~ I'm sorry, but I must go because my mother answered to help her.

Writing

Hi Joe,

Thank you for your email. It was great to hear news from you. I'm happy, that you ~~can't~~ <sup>ready</sup> to watch a new episode.

Well, I'm ready to answer.

In the main characters I like them story. ~~It's~~ <sup>They</sup> very interesting. There are five seasons.

In my opinion, the most powerful season is 3rd.

There is a lot of different moments, that you can't expect. At least I can tell that this is the largest season of all. There are thirty episodes. Also I would be watch season two. There are we <sup>can</sup> first time see a die. When I watched this moment, I was really scare.

Sorry, but I need to go. My mother asked me to do something.

Write me back soon,

Best wishes,

N.

READING (15 points)

Time: 20 minutes

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

The Life of Queen Elizabeth II

1. D

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. C

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. E

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. A

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. B

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

- A. Coronation
- B. Later reign
- C. Early life of the heir
- D. Princess Elizabeth
- E. Marriage

Writing

Hi Joe,

Thank you for your letter. And thank you for ~~watching~~ watching this TV show. It's my favourite! I really enjoy it. I like how actors laugh, talk. This is too fun.

And I like the main characters of the series. Because they're ~~so~~ <sup>too</sup> beautiful and kind. And I can understand that they feel.

There are three seasons in the ~~show~~ show. I think it isn't too big.

And I watched a new episode. It's really fun and too silly.

I love it.

And that is your opinion about this episode? Do you like that the characters do?

Lots of love,

N

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

Уважаемый участник олимпиады!

Вам предстоит выполнить письменные задания. Время выполнения заданий письменного тура 90 минут.

Выполнение заданий целесообразно организовать следующим образом: – не спеша, внимательно прочитайте формулировку задания;
– напишите правильный вариант ответа в бланке ответов;
– после выполнения всех предложенных заданий еще раз удостоверьтесь в
правильности ваших ответов;
– если потребуется корректировка выбранного Вами варианта ответа, то неправильный вариант ответа зачеркните крестиком и рядом напишите новый.

Предупреждаем Вас, что:

– при оценке тестовых заданий, где необходимо определить один правильный ответ, 0 баллов выставляется за неверный ответ и в случае, если участником отмечены несколько ответов (в том числе правильный), или все ответы;
– при оценке тестовых заданий, где необходимо определить все правильные ответы, 0 баллов выставляется, если участником отмечены неверные ответы, большее количество ответов, чем предусмотрено в задании (в том числе правильные ответы) или все ответы. Задание письменного тура считается выполненным, если Вы вовремя сдаете его членам жюри. Максимальная оценка

Dear Joe,
Thank you for your recent e-mail. I haven't answered earlier because I was really byzu with my school. But now I have free time and I will answer all your questions.

Firstly you asked me why I like the main character of the series? Well, I can say that I liked him because he is smart, curious and cool. Besides you wanted to know how many seasons are in the series. I can answer that there are 4 seasons on this moment. And also you asked about my opinion about this show. Ok, I think that it is first <sup>interesting</sup> ~~rate~~ series with ~~exiting~~ & exiting adventures. But also I think that some actors aren't professionals.

I hope that I answered all your questions.

Best

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. Dear Joe,

Thanks for your letter. Now, I would like to answer your questions.

In my <sup>I think</sup> opinion, the main characters showing how common human <sup>has</sup> have to be. They also showing that if you will not hard-work, you will never get more than you have.

I think this show is very nice, because it shows many types of people and ~~how~~ who you don't have to become. It is kind but in some episodes it can break all.

There is ~~ex~~ 8 seasons in this show but I heard about 9th season by next year but I don't know full information about it.

Write back soon,

Best wishes,

Writing

Dear Joe,

I read your message. I'm very happy that you are well.

Ok I can tell you my opinion about this show. I like Kikorici, I like characters of this show. I like Kikorici because it is very very funny, yea, sometimes it is sadly, but the most of the series are funny. I like characters because they are very funny and happy, they play games and teach kids be friendly. In Pin-cod characters teach kids biology, geography, maths, chemistry and physics. The show has more than one thousand series and ten seasons, but it is not the end, authors continue make new series for kids.

Take care,

Ilya

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

Hi Joe,

I am so sad about it. It is very good show!

Why you think "I am easier"?

This TV programme is for children our age.

What about my opinion?

So, I guess, it is interesting show. I like this TV series. And my parents too!

They say it is very funny and cute show.

Also, my friend from school - Mary likes this show too. She is lovely it!

She talked: "I like this TV programme, because I love funny moments, and there are a lots of funny! I guess, atmosphere at the show is very comfortable!"

I think, you must see the next series.

After that you will love this TV show!

I love your next letter.

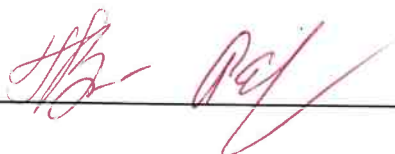

Best wishes,

N

Writing

Hello there.

I read your previous email about Sherlock show. I really like it because it's good, and it's detective, and i like good detectives. There's everything is good. I like main character Sherlock because his detective "sense". I like Moriarty "evil" detective sense too (he is the "bad" man). There's 4 seasons, but in my opinion the best seasons is 1st and 3rd.

That's all i wanted to say,

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.
