Writing

Hi Joe,

I'm glad that you impressed by the TV series I recommended. I ~~wanted~~ watched this TV series about a year ago but still love it so much, especially actors, they are wonderful. Actors showed us all sides of their characters, good and bad ones, so we understood very clear who of them we like and don't like. The main characters are smart, kind and friendly. They are great friends, the ones who will help and support you anytime. Also they are really brave. They weren't afraid of things, which their friends and family were frightened about.

In this TV series four seasons. First you might think it's a lot, but it is not. In my opinion, it is a great number of seasons for this show. They showed us all sides of characters and their life ~~for~~ from childhood till death. A lot of things happened and the show ended up really well. I hope you will like this TV series!

Write back soon,

Best wishes,

N.

READING (15 points)

Time: 20 minutes

Task 1. Read an article about the longest-serving monarch in British history and for the questions 1-5 match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs (1-5).

The Life of Queen Elizabeth II

1. _____

Queen Elizabeth II was born Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary Windsor on 21st April 1926. Her parents were Prince Albert, Duke of York and Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, The Duchess of York. When she was born, Princess Elizabeth was not likely to ascend to the throne. She was third in line to the throne but it was presumed that King Edward VIII would marry and that his first child would become the heir. However, a twist in fate caused Princess Elizabeth to become next in line to the throne in December 1936 when her uncle abdicated. King Edward VIII stood down and the crown passed to his brother. Princess Elizabeth's father became King George VI and she was next in line to the throne.

2. _____

When King Edward VIII stepped down, the Princess's life changed dramatically. She was no longer simply a member of the Royal Family: she was the heir to the throne. Princess Elizabeth went by the nickname Lilibet and had enjoyed a relatively carefree childhood up until this point. She had all the privileges of a princess without the impending pressures of being heir to the throne. Along with her sister, Princess Margaret, Princess Elizabeth was educated by a team of private tutors. The Princesses were schooled in mathematics, French, music and religion - with Princess Elizabeth also receiving lessons in British history and law.

3. _____

Princess Elizabeth first met Prince Philip in 1934. On 9th July 1947, their engagement was officially announced and their wedding took place at Westminster

Abbey on 20th November 1947. Throughout their long marriage, the royal couple had a large family of four children, eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The Royal Family includes: King Charles III, his son (Prince William) and his grandson (Prince George), who make up the current direct line of succession.

4. _____

On 6th February 1952, King George VI died. From this point forward, Princess Elizabeth became Queen Elizabeth II, taking on the role and its responsibilities immediately. Her official coronation ceremony took place at Westminster Abbey on 2nd June 1953. The entire ceremony was broadcast on radio and on television: a breakthrough for television as it was still relatively new technology.

More than 20 million people watched the historical moment, outnumbering the radio audience for the first time.

5. _____

Throughout her time on the throne, Queen Elizabeth II was praised by many for her calm and peaceful manner. Queen Elizabeth II met weekly with the prime minister of the UK and reigned over 15 different leaders, including Winston Churchill. Aside from her duties, Queen Elizabeth II enjoyed many hobbies and outdoor pursuits, having a particular fondness for horse racing and tending to her beloved corgis. Sadly, Queen Elizabeth II died on 8th September 2022, at the age of 96. She has been succeeded by her son, Charles. She will be long remembered across the world for her extraordinary reign as well as her sense of duty and unwavering devotion to the people of the UK and the Commonwealth countries.

- A. Coronation
- B. Later reign
- C. Early life of the heir
- D. Princess Elizabeth
- E. Marriage
